150 BRITISH HOLD BACK 1,000 ARABS IN DESERT BATTLE

Remarkable Incident of the War at an Isolated Post in Egypt.

HARD MARCH IN SAND.

Attackers Driven Away by Relief Forces After a Struggle of Many Hours.

LONDON, May 15 (Correspondence of the Associated Press) .- The defence by the British at the Egyptian post at El-Duelder during the Turkish raid of April 28 deserves to be chronicled as among the memorable incidents of the war, according to Reuter's special corndent at the general headquarters of the Egyptian Expeditionary Force. On that Sunday 150 British soldiers held a position far too extended for such a small parrison, against a force of Turks and Arabs six times their own number, says the correspondent.

The location of defence is a small casts in a depression in the sandy waste about thirteen miles east of the Sues Canal. The British had erected two redoubts and several small iso ated posts in the vicinity of a grove of date palms. These defenses were oot completed at the time of the raid.

In a mist so thick that the defenders were barely able to discern the barbed wire fifty feet in advance of their redoubts, the attack began at 8 o'clock in the morning. Rifle fire beat back the first assault very quickly, accordring to the correspondent, the Turks retiring to reform.

Capt. Roberts of the Royal Scots Fusiliers was in command. In the ence of communication trenches, be was unable, after the mist lifted at 9 o'clock to send reinforcements, ammunition and messages to the isolated posts, as the attackers' rifle and machine gun fire swept the intervening spaces. One post was held by eight men, three of whom were wounded early in the engagement. To the extreme right, some of the British lay out in the open and TROUBLE IS, MAN DOESN'T ought off enemy attempts to reach the rear of the defenses.

ITALIANS TO QUIT LINE OF DEFENSE

Preparing to Evacuate Asiago, Says Vienna, as Austrian Advance Presses On.

VIENNA, May 30.-Italian forces are preparing to evacuate Asiago, the largest Italian town threatened by the Austrians since the great offensive in Southern Tyrol began. An official statement from the War Office reports that an Austrian force has crossed the Assa Valley near Roana, five miles west of Asiago, and is advancing southward, threatening to surround the Italians. Near Canove, five miles southwest of Asiago, the Italians made vain attempts to stem the Austrian advance, but were repulsed.

"We also possess Monte Cebio Monte Sieglarella and the Cerno di Campo Bianco," said the official statement. "In the upper Posina valley we drove the Italians out of their positions west and south of Webalen."
